PLEASE DO NOT GIVE SPARE CHANGE TO PANHANDLERS

YOUR MONEY OFTEN SUPPORTS
ADDICTION AND UNDERMINES THE PERSON RECEIVING IT

Here are some ways to help:

- Share this card with information on accessing help – call 2-1-1
- Be firm but respectful
- Say, “I’m sorry I can’t give you money but use this information to get help.”
- Call 9-1-1 if you feel threatened or harassed
- Give to organizations and churches that provide assistance
- Volunteer at a local organization or program that helps

Helping people escape homelessness is a complicated effort involving many people and organizations working together. Please work with professionals and do not serve meals or distribute items (clothing, blankets, etc.) in public parks or other spaces.

Lexington has:

- 558+ shelter beds
- 10+ recovery programs
- 15+ free meals/day
- 8+ jobs programs

CALL 2-1-1 OR VISIT LEXGIVE.COM TO SUPPORT THE PANHANDLING JOBS VAN PROGRAM.
